

CALL FOR PRESENTERS: Aurora Regional Chamber of Commerce

The Aurora Regional Chamber of Commerce has a number of opportunities for our members to share their expertise with other members.

We invite you to share your perspectives, creativity, experience, and knowledge to offer our participants a highly educational, motivational program. We are seeking proposals for sessions that will meet participants' diverse learning needs.

Please carefully review the following instructions before submitting your abstract.

1. Selection preference will be given to speakers focused on educating professionals from a variety of backgrounds including entrepreneurship, corporate management, higher education and non-profit administration.
2. It is preferred that you only submit your abstract in the single most appropriate area, e.g., Business Strategies, Sales Strategies, Risk Management, Legal, Finance or Marketing.
3. Selected speakers must agree to the terms accompanying this document.
4. All required application form fields must be completed.

Speaker Benefits

The greatest benefit in presenting for the Aurora Regional Chamber and its membership is to share your experience and expertise with a group of participants and to interact with other influential business people including corporate executives, entrepreneurs, community leaders, and consultants. In addition to promoting our speakers and their backgrounds on our website, in press releases and printed materials, Aurora Regional Chamber offers the following benefits in exchange for speaker participation:

- Opportunity to include a marketing piece inside the attendee gift bags
- Table space to provide materials about you, your business, and/or products.
