As a leader, you know that everyone on the team must understand what is expected while each member understands his or her role. Your role, in building a successful team, is to create a nature of trust that all team members embrace. Where does that start? How does that evolve in turbulent times? What are some simple, effective tools to use to establish trust? Join us Friday, Nov. 20, to find out from our expert panel.

Aurora University Dunham School of Business and the Aurora Regional Chamber of Commerce bring you a new series on leadership.

Join us for breakfast, networking and discussion. $25 per person. Register online at www.AuroraChamber.com or by calling (630) 897-3751.

Save the Dates for Upcoming Series Topics:

February 12: Leading Effective Teams

May 14: Creating a Healthy Leadership Strategy

Your Catalyst for Business Success
